

AMSRO LEADERS FORUM 2019

The Human Side

The Langham, Melbourne

The Leaders Forum conference is AMSRO's annual landmark member-only event for Industry CEOs, Managing Directors, Principals and senior staff.

The Leaders Forum delivers an impressive line-up of guest speakers on topics relevant to members from a leadership perspective. Delegates learn the latest on issues affecting their business and techniques on how to successfully protect and lead their teams in this ever-changing world.

Previous themes include: The Human Side; Pivot – Adapting to win in a changing world; The New Normal – Embracing Transformation; Facing the Future and Leadership in a time of Disruption. A five-star event, the Leaders Forum is a unique and exclusive haven for industry leaders.

With every element of the highest calibre, the Forum is the perfect opportunity for members to come together and network, learn, share ideas and do business, all in a stylish, yet collegial setting.

The social events of the Leaders Forum are well renowned: with two private world-class fine dining dinners and an international wine tasting session – the quality of which, add a layer of excellence to the event and make it a not-to-be-missed experience.

What members said:

- “ It's the highlight of the year for me in terms of events. I get a lot out of the networking and the wine tasting is just brilliant too! 10/10!
Laura Robbie, General Manager Lightspeed
- “ A great range of speakers and topics in an ideal location.
Rob McLachlan, CEO WPP DIM Group
- “ This was a great event, with excellent speakers who were very focused on aspects of leadership, changes in the way leadership happens and issues that challenge our thinking.
Monica Greenwood, Client Services Director, Bastion Latitude
- “ The high quality speakers and breadth of subject matter were terrific. The focus on insights and application rather than process or technical was very applicable to me and my company.
Simon Ford, Managing Director ANZ, Shopper Intelligence.
- “ Thanks again for an excellent forum! Excellent food, wine and networking as usual. Congratulations to Sarah, Jennifer and the organising committee.
Jenny Witham, Chief Client Officer, Colmar Brunton.
- “ The Leaders Forum has something for everyone - a great variety of speakers, a lovely atmosphere and culture, plus wonderful food
Linley Barden, Director of People and Culture, Fiftyfive5
- “ Networking with other Leaders is always a highlight. It was, as usual, great value for money! Craig Young, Managing Director, Engine
